

The 2017 Camrose Trophy First Weekend

Brandon Hall Hotel
Coventry
6th-8th January 2017

The 2017 Camrose Trophy

is presented by the English Bridge Union

Welcome to Brandon Hall

Bridge Great Britain and the English Bridge Union extend to all a warm welcome to the 2017 Camrose Trophy.

The venue is the Brandon Hall Hotel, which is situated near Coventry, and as well as having superb playing facilities, the hotel has a fine range of leisure facilities. BBO Vugraph coverage will be broadcast in a separate room for spectators to watch the action live and we would welcome expert and instructive commentary there from sitting-out players NPCs and other experts.

Refreshments

For all the players and officials, meal timings are as follows:-

Friday – Dinner at 17.45pm

Saturday – Sandwich lunch at 2.35 pm, dinner at 20.30pm

Sunday – Sandwich lunch at 2.35 pm, dinner at 20.30pm.

The Camrose Trophy

Format

The Camrose Trophy comprises six teams, the sixth team being fielded, by rotation, by the country hosting the final weekend. In 2017 Scotland fields two teams, one as “Scotland” the other as “Scottish Bridge Union”.

Five head-to-head matches of 32 boards, in 16-board stanzas, will be played on each of two weekends. The scores from the first weekend are carried forward to the final weekend. The two teams from Scotland play against each other in the first match of each weekend.

Teams consist of a maximum of 6 players.

The draw for 2017 is as follows:

Team A: England

Team B: Northern Ireland

Team C: Scottish Bridge Union

Team D: Ireland

Team E: Scotland

Team F: Wales

The team printed first in the schedule sits North-South in the Open Room and East-West in the Closed Room throughout the match.

Seating rights alternate between the two teams. In the first stanza the Captain of the second-named team nominates his pairs first; in the second stanza the first-named Captain nominates first.

Line-ups must be submitted at least five minutes before a stanza is due to begin.

Systems and Conventions

The Camrose Series is considered to be a Category 1 event as defined within the WBF Systems Policy. Systems permitted in the Camrose Trophy are laid out in the Bridge Great Britain regulations.

Public presentation

In any one session, three matches are in progress, and we intend that as many as possible of them be covered live on the internet on Bridge Base Online (BBO). The BBO coverage of the closed room of one of these matches will be shown in the Vugraph room, where sitting-out players and NPCs are invited to offer commentary to spectators. Results from the Open Room of the same match and from both rooms of the other matches will also be available in the Vugraph room.

The Match Manager will announce which matches will be shown on Vugraph.

The other option for spectators is to watch live in the Open Room, where one table from each match is in play. Spectators are subject to the regulations set out below. Entry to the Closed Room is prohibited.

Regulations for Open Room Spectators

Spectators may watch the players live in the Open Room provided they observe the following rules:

1. During play in the Open Room they must refrain from mannerisms or remarks, and must not converse with a player or display any reaction to bidding or play.
2. Spectators are permitted to observe the cards of one player only.
3. They should be seated behind that player and may not get up to walk round the table, or seek to look at the cards of any other player.

4. Spectators may not draw attention to any irregularity or mistake, nor speak on any question except by request of the Director.
5. Non-playing members of a team are not allowed to watch their teammates playing at the tables.
6. A player is responsible for the actions of any spectator who is associated with him (as distinct to a spectator casually attracted to the table by his presence there).
7. The Director in Charge and/or the Match Manager is empowered to control the presence of spectators, individually or collectively.

Smoking and Alcohol

Please note that smoking is not permitted anywhere in the hotel. In addition the consumption of alcohol is not permitted in the playing areas. This also applies to tournament staff. During a session no player may leave the playing area in order to smoke.

Mobile Phones

Please note that mobile phones, pagers or other electronic equipment brought into the playing areas by players or NPCs must be switched off, placed visibly on a table and left in the room if the player leaves it during play for any reason. Spectators in the Vugraph theatre must ensure that mobile phones are switched off. Any player or team official breaching this regulation will result in his team being fined an automatic penalty of 2VP.

Team profiles

ENGLAND

Alexander Allfrey and Andrew Robson

Alexander Allfrey has been Andrew Robson's regular partner for over 10 years and has played in the Camrose six times before - on the winning EBU team in 2009 and on the winning England team on four occasions. In 2014 he was on the winning team for the Gold Cup, his 6th Gold Cup win. He has also played for England in the World Mind Sports Games in Lille 2012 and again in the World Team Championships in Bali 2013, reaching the quarter-finals. Alexander is a psychotherapist and lives in Dorset with his wife and five children.

Andrew Robson has played with Alexander Allfrey for over a decade. Breaking through as a Junior, winning the World Teams Championships in 1989, Andrew has achieved a long list of successes both domestic and abroad. His playing achievements are only a part of the story – he runs the famous Andrew Robson Bridge Club in London with 3000 members, writes daily for The Times, weekly for Country Life and Money Week and monthly for the Oldie. He also travels the country running bridge days, often for charity and in 2013 was awarded the OBE for services to Bridge and Charity. When not bridging, you'll find Andrew roaming the countryside either with his bike or the family bichon frise.

Tony Forrester and David Bakhshi

Tony Forrester won the European Youth Team Championship in 1978 and the European Team Championship in 1991. The latter win was in partnership with Andrew Robson, with whom he played for seven years. The pair also won the Cap Gemini and the Sunday Times-Macallan. Playing for Rita Shugart's team, in 1998 he was the first Briton, with team-mate Robson, to win a prestigious US Major, the Reisinger, and the same squad won the event a second time the following year. This event will earn Tony his 46th Camrose cap for England, and extend his record for the most appearances. Tony has won the Gold Cup, the premier British teams competition, a record 13 times, the Spring Foursomes on five occasions and the Crockfords Cup nine times. Tony was a recipient of the inaugural Diamond Award from the EBU, for his achievements in bridge, in 2015.

David is one of the leading bridge professionals in the UK, with numerous successes in domestic and international tournaments. Over the last 20 years, he has represented England and Britain at both Junior and Open levels of competition. His recent achievements include a 3rd place finish at the Europeans Teams Championships (2014), and 4th place at the Bermuda Bowl (2015). David has also rekindled his interest in junior bridge. In 2016 he attended the World Youth Championships to support his daughter Jasmine, as she represented the England U16s.

Mike Bell and David Gold

Mike Bell first met David Gold at school, through the chess club. Mike wouldn't discover bridge for a few years, and David hadn't been playing long himself, but just nineteen years later they formed a partnership. Since then, they have won the Spring Fours and the English Premier League with the Allfrey team. Mike's prior successes include Sweden's Chairman's Cup and the pairs at the prestigious Yeh Bros in Shanghai.

When not playing bridge, Mike may be found watching it instead – he was coach for the U16s in the World Championships in Italy this summer, where he was able deputy to the captain, Sarah O'Connor (his fiancée).

His love of bidding theory has endured - in David and Sarah, he seems to have found two regular partners who are not just willing to play his home-grown system, but seem to enjoy doing so!

David started his career in the sports world as a top junior chess player going on to learn bridge at school aged about 16. He played in World and European junior events in the early 2000s and made his Camrose debut with Tom Townsend in 2002. He has since played in the Camrose Trophy on twelve further occasions with different partners – he will be playing in the competition with Mike Bell for the second time in 2017.

David has been a mainstay of the England international team for over a decade, making thirteen combined appearances in the European Championships, Bermuda Bowl and World Bridge Games (World Olympiad). He won a silver medal in the 2008 World Olympiad, a bronze medal in the 2014 European Championships, and was part of the team which finished fourth in the 2015 Bermuda Bowl after two extremely narrow defeats in the semi-final and bronze medal play-off. David has numerous domestic titles on his bridge CV, including victory in the Gold Cup three times, the Premier League five times, and the 2016 Spring Foursomes. He was the winner of the EBU's inaugural Player of the Year Championship for the 2014/15 season.

Martin Jones (NPC)

Martin lives in Coventry where he works as a designer for a hydraulic equipment manufacturer. Previous NPC experience has been for the English Women's team – including a bronze medal winning performance in the 2006 European Championships – but this is his first foray into the Open arena. He is no stranger to the Camrose Trophy, however, having played in the competition on ten previous occasions. He was also a member of the last Great Britain team to play in the European Championships (in Malta in 1999).

With his daughter, Megan, having recently been picked for England's Under 16s and Under 26 Women (he's so proud) his family now has 3 generations to have represented England.

IRELAND

Tom Hanlon and Hugh McGann

Born in 1967 and originally from Rochfortbridge, Co. Westmeath, Tom (aka "Kinder"), now living in Dublin, has been playing bridge since 1981. He will explain how he got the sobriquet "Kinder"!! In 2004 he became Ireland's youngest Grand Master. Kinder moved straight from the Irish Junior Team to the Irish Open Team in 1994, following which he regularly represented Ireland in International events. Having more than 40 National titles under his belt he has won the Camrose (5 times), and the Lederer (twice).

When not playing bridge Tom is fond of the odd game of poker!

From Fermoy in Co. Cork, Hugh now lives in North Yorkshire and works in Leeds as a doctor specialising in infectious diseases. He formed a partnership with Tom Hanlon in 1991 and won a silver medal in the E.U. Junior Pairs in 1993. He has shared Tom's recent successes with the Irish Open Team. Hugh reached Grand Master rank in 2008.

With Tom, Hugh was part of the European Team that took part in the first two stagings of the Warren Buffett Cup. Europe beat USA in September 2008 in Louisville, Kentucky having lost in Dublin in 2006. He lives with his partner Fiona Brown and together they finished fourth in the World mixed pairs in Verona in 2006.

John Carroll and Tommy Garvey

John is a Research & Development Manager with a software house based in Dublin. With regular partner, Tommy Garvey, he has won a number of caps for Ireland on the European stage, and was on the Irish team that finished in Silver Medal Position in Warsaw in 2006 and in 4th position in the World Teams Championships in Lille in August 2012. Tom and Hugh were also on that successful team. If this wasn't enough to be busy with, he and his wife Ann Marie, also an international player, have two boys under the age of eleven!

Tommy was introduced to Bridge more than 30 years ago, by his father, Donal. Tommy works in London as an actuary, returning home to raid for trophies every so often. He and John made their open team international debut in Italy at the European Championships in Montecatini in 1997 and in doing so, achieved a distinction shared by only one other family in Irish bridge – the O'Connells from Cork, who until Tommy and Donal appeared, were the only father and son to play on the Irish team together.

Tommy is married to Kit and they are also the proud parents of two small boys.

Rory Boland and Mark Moran

Rory Boland is yet another extremely youthful looking Irish player, begging the question – “How do they not get stressed??” – Answer – “stay single!” Rory over the years has played with two greats of Irish bridge -Niall Toibin & Pat Walshe – both of whom passed away long before their time and Rory insists he taught them all he knew.

Rory, playing then with Niall Toibin, with Tom & Hugh, was part of the CBAI team that won the Camrose the year after the CBAI return to the event in 1999 – 2000 and Mark was NPC that year.

Mark also was part of a Camrose winning CBAI team with Tom & Hugh, when they won in 2005. At that time, he was playing with Peter Pigot. Mark has recently “semi” retired and has decided that he too will listen to the “pearls” from Rory – so far very successfully.

Grainne Barton (NPC)

Grainne, herself an international medal-winner and former Lady Milne player, has taken to the job as NPC of this team like a duck to water! Her first major success with the team was in Monaco in October 2013 when they were narrowly beaten in the final of the Cavendish Teams, leaving the greats of world bridge playing in the “Plate”!! Since then, she has captained the team in many events across Europe.

NORTHERN IRELAND

Ciara Burns & John Murchan

John has retired from being an accountant in Mid-Ulster. This is his 17th Camrose cap, and 10th in partnership with Ciara. He stresses that he is by far the 2nd youngest member of the team that he labels “geriatric”. He is well known for his placid temperament and kindness to partner whether things are going badly or well!! John thinks there is nothing better than a good nightcap (toot) while watching the sun go down when on holidays in Spain.

Ciara is a solicitor with a law firm, though stresses she is not an ambulance chaser. She has played on the Northern Ireland Camrose team in partnership with John on several occasions. Ciara has also played on the Northern Ireland Lady Milne team on numerous occasions, and has represented Ireland on the Women’s team on 3 occasions (not with John!).

Hasting Campbell & Greer Mackenzie

Hastings is a retired university lecturer who runs property companies in Belfast. He has represented Northern Ireland more than 60 times with a number of different partners. Hastings takes his bridge very seriously as long as it doesn't interfere with his true passion, cricket.

Greer Mackenzie has recently retired from his insurance software business. Greer has won more than 60 Camrose caps and with more partners than he can remember, including 30+ with Hastings since 1990. Greer's main responsibilities at the weekend will involve all the partnerships administrative and hassle duties, such as system sheets, scoring and etc. This leaves Hastings free to concentrate on the important things in life – fine wine, cigars and other social issues.

Rex Anderson & David Greenwood

Rex and David formed their partnership 21 years ago and, after a 5-year ‘separation’, have continuously played, subject to ill health, in the Northern Ireland team since 2001. Rex’s Camrose career commenced in the 60’s playing with his father whilst David first played in 1980 but for England! They have also represented Ireland on three occasions and were reserves for the Bermuda Bowl. Rex recently retired as a solicitor in Coleraine and is embarking on writing a history of the NIBU.

David married to Irish International Diane (with whom he has played in 5 Camrose matches), lives just outside Belfast and is also retired.

John Ferguson (NPC)

John has represented Northern Ireland on 15 occasions in the Camrose series. He would much prefer to be playing golf or watching rugby. John is married to Hilary who has also played Lady Milne; Hilary will be keeping a close eye on all administration duties.

SCOTLAND

Alex Adamson and Mike McGinley

Alex has been playing bridge for 35 years, and played for Scotland and Britain as a junior. This is his first Camrose, though he played for Scotland in the World Bridge Games. He works as a programme manager at Historic Environment Scotland, occasionally getting to write history books. In his spare time he is a bridge writer. Alex has been playing with Mike McGinley for two years.

Mike learnt bridge at school in Glasgow over 40 years ago, and played Junior Camrose in the 1970s. This is his 2nd Camrose cap, the first being with Steve Male in 2012. He has recently retired, having been an accountant for most of his working life, and now plans to do even more reading [so little time, so many books]. One whimsical ambition is to witness a 4-card ending, with dummy holding the same card in four suits!

Paul Barton and Jun Nakamaru-Pinder

Paul has been playing bridge for around 25 years with a couple of breaks. He has played for Scotland in a European Championships and this is his 4th Camrose - his first with Jun, having established their partnership early in 2016. He works as an innovation consultant in Edinburgh.

Jun has been playing bridge for 14 years, but still plays for Scotland as a junior - most recently winning the Under 26 European Mixed Pairs. He first represented Scotland at Open level at 17, but this is his first appearance in the 1st weekend of the Camrose. Having now graduated with a Masters degree in Maths, he works as an actuarial consultant in London.

Sandy Duncan and Jim Hay

Sandy first played international bridge as a junior in 1969(!) and since then he has collected 26 Camrose ‘caps’ as well as a bronze medal as part of the British team in the Common Market Championships. In 1996 he went to work in the USA but he now plays regularly in Scotland, captaining Camrose and other international teams over the last 7 years. This is his first Camrose as a player since returning to Scotland.

Jim was first capped in the early 1990s, playing twice with John Simpson. He returned to bridge in 2010 to play in a European and a World championship, both times with juniors who have since played several times for Scotland. He lives in Aberdeen where he indulges his other main interest by selling fishing tackle for a local firm. He now plays with Sandy Duncan as all the juniors feel his bidding is too erratic for them!

Mike Ash (NPC)

Mike was SBU President 2012-2014 and has captained many Camrose teams. He has played in both Camrose and Teltscher events as well as 3 successive Europeans with 3 different partners. He claims to be retired but spends a lot of his time as a non-executive director for the NHS – “someone has to do it!”

SCOTTISH BRIDGE UNION

Samantha Punch and Stephen Peterkin

This is Sam’s third Camrose with Stephen. She has played in the Scottish women’s team since 2008, recently coming 4th in the Olympiad in Poland. She is Dean of Graduate Studies at Stirling University where she is also doing research on the Sociology of Bridge, currently exploring the question: ‘Why are men more successful at bridge than women?’ If you are willing to answer a few questions related to this topic, she would be keen to hear from you: s.v.punch@stir.ac.uk

This is Stephen's fourth time playing for Scotland in the Camrose, last time playing with Derek Sanders. He formed a partnership with Sam seven years ago and they were on the winning team for the Commonwealth’s transnational teams in Glasgow. Some of you may recognise him as a regular BBO operator.

He is a classically trained pianist but more recently has been teaching English to students from across Europe.

Iain Sime and John Matheson

Iain is a Chartered Tax Adviser with a blue chip law firm in Edinburgh. However, he is due to retire in February, so will be able to devote more time to futile pastimes like supporting the Scotland and Hearts football teams, clearing out the garage and playing bridge. Regarding the latter, Iain is evidence of the perceived wisdom that if you want to be any good at this game, you have to learn to play bridge before you are 30.

Despite being no good, Iain has been a regular in the Scottish Camrose team over the past ten years, which proves how great a player John Matheson must be..... or how easy it is to make it into the Scottish Camrose team. Iain's best bridge results were partnering John Murdoch in the Scottish senior team, which won a European bronze medal and reached the Quarter Finals of the D'Orsi Bowl in Bali. Iain's wife Linda is now semi-retired and has just started to learn bridge, expecting to make the Camrose team in a couple of years.

John is a retired GP, very happily married to Trish. His first Camrose cap was in 1968, and he has partnered many of Scotland's finest bridge players. He loves watching cricket, and following the stock market, when he isn't busy with Bridge. Always willing to help, he is the "go to" guy for many top players who are seeking advice, and has also spent a lot of time coaching some of the less experienced partnerships.

Frazer Morgan and Phil Stephens

These two are conveniently lumped together as they have so much in common. Both came up through the Junior ranks, gaining useful experience at International level, then moved seamlessly into the Camrose team a few years ago, and have each played a few times, although not always with each other. Living and working in England makes playing in Scottish events quite difficult, and having really busy lives means they find it almost impossible to respond to emails, far less write a pen portrait. Luckily they have a ghost writer.

Anne Symons (NPC)

Anne has been a regular member of the Scottish Ladies team for a number of years, playing in Lady Milnes, Europeans and Olympiads. She has also been part of the only women's pair to play in the Camrose for Scotland. She has quite a lot of captaincy experience with Juniors and Seniors, but this is her first foray in to world of the Camrose as NPC.

WALES

Tim Rees and Gary Jones

Two very experienced Camrose campaigners. Tim has represented Wales in over twenty Camrose and a number of European Championships in partnership with Filip Kurbalija, including being playing Captain in 2008 in Pau. For a couple of years (2006 and 2008) Tim topped the Gold Point rankings. Tim has won the majority of the major domestic competitions including the Gold Cup twice, Crockfords and the Spring Fours. Tim is the Chairman of the Laws and Ethics Committee of the EBU.

Gary was part of the historic first ever Welsh win in 2010 playing with his son Dafydd. Gary was also a member of the all Welsh team that won the Schapiro Spring Fours in the same year, a very good year for Welsh bridge. Gary represented the Wales Open Team in the recent European Championships in Budapest playing with the late, great Patrick Jourdain. Gary and Tim qualified for this year's Camrose campaign by virtue of being runners up in the Welsh Premier League and finishing second in the Butler ranking.

Adrian Thomas and Paul Denning

Having made it through his "comeback" last year Adrian surprised himself that he wasn't the weakest link in the team. Adrian and Paul had virtually sewn up top position in the Butler on the first weekend of this year's Welsh Premier League, finishing top, winning again and ensuring selection for this years Camrose.

Adrian plays very little competitive bridge these days spending his retirement working harder than ever running Bridge Holidays; he completed his 100th holiday over last year's Christmas period. Now he has to try to know as much about bridge rules, as today's modern bidding methods. He finds a lot of satisfaction from the teaching that is involved. Adrian is happily married and living in Dolgellau where he spends his spare time walking, looking for his lost balls on the golf course, and cycling in Snowdonia.

Paul was made redundant in 2015 from his job in IT support for EDF but was very soon re-employed as a contractor in virtually the same role. Last year he re-formed a long standing partnership with Adrian Thomas (playing 13 Camrose matches together) winning the Welsh Premier League once again and earning selection. Paul is married to Barbara and still plays tennis competitively in and around his home town of Tewkesbury.

Paul Lamford and Richard Plackett

Paul qualifies to play for Wales having been born in Haverfordwest. This will be Paul's first representative match for Wales having changed allegiance from England with whom he found success in the Chairman's Cup of 2014. Paul has represented Wales at chess in four Olympiads and has also played competitive backgammon at a high level winning the British Championships a couple of times. Paul compiles sports odds, designs computer games and has written a dozen books on games including a couple on bridge.

Richard is a recently retired investment manager who returned to bridge a couple of years ago having been a Gold Cup winner in 1988. He formed a partnership with Paul Lamford for this year's Welsh Premier League which they won with Paul Denning and Adrian Thomas, guaranteeing them selection for this year's Camrose campaign. Richard played for the Wales Open Team in the recent European Championships in Budapest with Simon Richards.

Alan Stephenson (NPC)

Alan was the non-playing captain for Wales historic first ever Camrose win which happened on home soil in Llandrindrod Wells in 2010. Alan is married to Krista a former Welsh Junior and Lady Milne International, they live near Wrexham. Having taken early retirement a couple of years ago as well as playing bridge and snooker, Alan spends a fair amount of time on the golf course and has been Captain of the Vauxhall Golf Society last year. He tries to get a monthly game with Adrian at the half-way venue of Bala or Ruthin when Bala is too wet!
