Green Point Awards for the Swiss Pairs & Swiss Teams Competitions

¼ green will be awarded for each match either won or drawn.

Bonus green points will be awarded to the leading pairs/teams at the appropriate EBU scale.

Licensing: The congress is licensed by the E.B.U. Both competitions are Level 4.

Refreshments : Mid-afternoon tea or coffee will be available (free) on both Saturday & Sunday.

There is no bar, no restaurant, no cafe: therefore bring your own alcohol, flasks, snacks, etc., if desired.

On Saturday only: Supper on the School Site (5-minute walk): see back page for details and order slip, though you may bring your own picnic. Or there is time for a quick meal in the town.

On Sunday only: Lunch break - bring your own snacks & drink, or order sandwiches (see over) and collect them from the school shop at the lunch break, where you can buy soft drinks.

Accommodation: There are plenty of hotels, guest houses and B&Bs in and around Shrewsbury. The Shrewsbury Tourist Board telephone number is 01743 281200.

Smoking: NO SMOKING IN THE BUILDINGS, nor near the food hall.

Car Parking: There is parking near the Hall and on Ashton Road.

Notes: We are playing in a school hall. Therefore :
Heating may not be as good as in a hotel, and you might like to bring a cushion.
