

When playing with screens:

- NS are responsible for moving the tray during the auction.
- All players are responsible for ensuring that the whole auction is visible.
- From the end of the auction, only the declaring side may move the tray, the board, open the screen or knock for it to be opened.
- The tray must be removed from the table during the play period; the board must remain on the table.