

The EBU Library

The EBU has a library of books and magazines. The majority of the collection is held at Aylesbury but some is held in Loughborough for the use of our junior squads.

There is now a complete listing of the books we hold and thanks are due to a volunteer, Gordon Bickley for undertaking this work.

The collection of magazines includes every edition of English Bridge and its predecessor the EBU Quarterly. Most copies of Bridge Magazine back to the 1930's are held as are copies of Contract Bridge Journal and British Bridge World.

We also publish copies of our magazines online and this covers all post WWII magazines. You can find this collection at <http://www.ebu.co.uk/englishbridge> They are free to view except for the most recent six issues which are in the member's area.

A visit to the library by researchers is possible and can be arranged by application to Aylesbury.

Those who have donated to the library include:

Terence Reese, Tony Priday, Rixi Markus, GCH Fox, Richard Fleet, Roy Dempster, Dr Leslie Ellis, David Kirkpatrick, Len Dight, David Franks, Paul de Weerd, Eric Milnes, Harold Franklin, Bradford Bridge Club, AJ Glasgow, Ken Deighton
